

SURVIVING THE HOLIDAYS

Saturday, November 15 • 9:00–11:00 AM at CTK • $5

If you've experienced loss through divorce or death of a loved one, the idea of "happy holidays" often seems impossible—no matter how long it's been. Come find help and hope to survive the holidays in this two-hour seminar. Includes expert video teaching and a time of discussion, connection, and support that will help you discover new reasons to enjoy the holidays again.

Register at the Connection Point or contact Jayne Doll
(jayned@ctkbellingham.com or 360-733-1337 x272).

NOW HIRING

Welcome Team/Receptionist

CTK is looking for a part-time Welcome Team staff member (20 hrs/wk, Mon-Thurs with some weekend hours).

Primary duties are at reception answering phones, greeting walk-ins, intake of financial assistance requests and miscellaneous projects. This position also supports Connection Point volunteers and CTK Introductions classes.

Weekend Coffee Brewmaster

CTK is looking for a part-time Brewmaster (8 hrs/weekend).

The Brewmaster is responsible for all weekend coffee preparation. Duties include monitoring and refilling coffee. Applicants must be able to lift 80 lbs multiple times per service. This position is all about customer service and friendliness to the staff and CTK congregation.

For more information and complete job descriptions, visit ctkbellingham.com/employment.

